Officials of Defiance Company Immediate Plans for Transfe of Plant.

ADDITION of the Definice Pressed Steel Co, plan the ranks of Marion's industries was assured to when it was announced that the Chamber of Comerc is over the top in its drive for $65 000 to provide a tory building and site for the company

A series of developments sinco mon venterally rought in half a dozen contributions which spelled victory in the campaign

Arrangements were begun to medicitely by efficiels of the Defiance Pressed Steel Co to remote the equips ment from Defirince to the factors quarters of the Power Manufacturing Co. The plant will have some pha is of its operations under way within 15 days and the expectathun is to have 400 persons implied by next hily company officials said. They added this forth is expected to increase to around 600 by October of 1937

Fulfills Contract Requirement Successful completion of the campaign for $61,009 fulfilled the most important part of the Chambel's pledges in a contract recently signed with officials of the ompany in which the company agreed to come to Marion if a factory building and site were furnished.

Before faunching its drive, the Chamber made ar ingements to purchase the Power Manufacturing Co. oudding for $50,000 and to get the building ready for use by the Deflance company at an expense of not more

Chamber leaders and business men generally halled accessful completion of the campaign as a rebirth of civic spirit and activity in the city, asserting it is the MAKES STATEMENT TODAY linst communitywide enterprise in recent years in which Marion residents have been called upon for virtually 100

Agreement

As further proof of the fact that social security legislation is not and cannot be come an issue of the presidential campaign is the wide agreement on Gov Landon's criticism of the new legislation framed and passed by the Roosevelt administration. Particularly is there a meeting of minis on the charge that the proposed $47,690,-000,000 reserve fund for payment of old age penalons is unnnecessary and unsound. Gov. Landon has performed a public service in opening discussion of this vital subject.

His comparison with the head of a family taking his children's earings and giving them IOUs, while spending the money, is bound to be quoted in future arguments. The federal government's securities may continue to be high grade investments, but the hard fact is that they represent expenditures, not savings. The money theoretically collected and stored away for payment of old age pensions would be no more or less than an invitation to boost the spending rate of the government.

This is not a partisan issue unless the new deal chooses to make it so. It is by nature a public problem, something which will have to be settled sooner or later. Gov. Landon who advocates putting old age penalons on an annual pay-as-you-go basis. has contributed materially to thought on the matter.

They Prefer Autocracy.

Americans following devaluation of the franc are told the move is essential to preserving democracy in France and strengthening, thereby, the weakened foundations of world peace.

This point of view calls for a wider grasp of French domestic affairs and international problems than most men possess. It is an inviting attitude, nevertheless.

Economic distress translates itself readily into social instability and political unrest. It Is understandable that an over-valued currency, making debts difficult to bear and restricting trade, contributes to economic distress. Dictatorship in Germany, for instance, might have been blocked by relieving economic tension in that country.

It is, therefore, justifiable that, the United States, Great Britain and France are in a loose agreement, not only to save the franc from causing further distress among French debtors and tradesmen but to save French men if possible, from dicintership.

There is something more impelling in the idea of autocracy, however, than the economic distress which invites autocrats to seize power and challenges them to retain it. Tyrahny springs from something desper than disorder and desperation. There are men and women who arrefer autocracy-and not all of them are living under autocrats. They claim their evelent is more than a match for democracy, with its characteristic of popular decisions, under any circumstances. It may be assumed none of these persons is looking forward to the time when they will come to live under autocrats. bosses in other Democratic states and cities. Something like 39 states have Democratic governors and duzen or cities have Democratic mayors, which gives the political machine a chance to sprout. Now it is not accurate to say that the above blee of 168 electoral votes in states where bly Democratic machines exist are in the bag for the new deal. Thus the fight against Curiey in Massachusetts is buttling Rossewitz chances there. But the hurting Ronsevelt's chances there. But the battle is between the machine-controlled cities where the bosses dominate and the cities where the bosses dominate and the rural areas and small towns where there is an unbossed vote.

If Mr. Roosevelt wins these states it will be to no small extrnt because the machines have succeeded in regimenting enough voters on behalf of the ticket to wing the electronic vote. swing the electoral vote. Many of these bosses are by no means in personal sympathy with the new deal, but the Rooselt policies have furnished them with epicodid opportunities for the exercise of spiradia opportunities for the exercise of local political influence as, for instance, through WPA and relief and through public works projects in which they or their friends have participated.

There's A Variety

Not all of these methics are allike alther.

There's A Variety
Not all of these machines are alike, either

in their purposes or in their methods. Some are less objectionable than others. Writing in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, a Democratic paper, Marquis W. Collds says of the Kanson City-St. Louis machine or the Annuel City-of. Louis fraction: "Missouri's bendergast is in the tradi-tion of the nineteenth century bosses. A former salcon-keeper, he looks like a picture of the masters of old Tammany, short, thick, in his late '50's, with flerce bite eyes. His word in Missouri is ab-"Kansas City in his kingdom. It is a

"Kanaes City in his kingdom. It is a wide-open town with gambling organized prostitution, and alot machines existing at the sufferance of the political organization. A close friend of Farley, Pendergast is loyal to the administration although privately he revites the new desit."

Pendergast has his alises in St. Louis. Of Mr. Rooseveit's Missouri majority of 460,000 in 1932, these two nities furnished about 200,000 and with Republicans going back into the fold in various parts of the state and a general impression that Missouri will be carried by Mr. Rooseveithy about 150,000 majority, it is easy to see how much of a determining factor the Pendergast machine and its affiliated organization in St. Louis become in achieving a victory for the new deal.

Forced Into Action

Lately some hig regularation fradds have been uncovered in St Louis and the scandal was so shocking that the Democratic governor had to dismits the election board even though it was of Democratic creation. Nearly 45,000 names of a registration list in St. Louis could not be found at the addresses given The cleanup has produced a wholesome effect in St. Louis, but here in Kansas City, where the registration is of unprecedented proportions and where the Kansas City Star cries out that it is 'too high 'no such cleanup has as yet occurred.

But even with unpadded registration lists. the powerful machine dominates because it has favors to dispense and because it has a get-out-the-vole machinery from house to house which is hard to best unless the Republicans have the money to carry on an effective campaign in the unbossed areas and to get in the polls the people who don't want to see the bosses increass their nower.

For awhile the new deal was cold to the Pendergast machine, but, as the presiden-tial election approached, differences were pairbed up and therefore, Missourl can truly be said to be "in the bag," because" as goes St. Louis and Kansas City where Pendergast controls, so goes Missourl

Barriers of World Ec onomic Peace

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1-International statemen, rejoicing over their Anglo-French-American money understanding, are not fooling theinselves as much as their carefully written public ballelujaha may indicate.

jahs may indicate.

They are still halling the agreement as a first step toward a revival of world markets, toward a world economic conference and world economic conference and utilimate world currency stabilization, but are refraining from estimating how many more steps will be required. As a malter of fact all realize privately the objectives are far heyond the horizon of their realistic vision at present

No one wants to be realistic ouloud at a time of rejoicing. It is enough that three nations can get together in accord these days on anything. But at the same time business, financial and peace work ers should know that the official and unofficial authorities agree that the hope for world economic peace is much greater than the chance for it.

For example, Treasury Secretary Morgenthau has announced the French voluntarily suggested during the course of negotiations that they intanded to take up the ques-tion of quota restrictions on im-ports. This sounded as if the bar-riers to trade with France were about to be opened.

Mr. Morgenthau neglected to mention the fact that France has always said the same thing and that there is a trick in it. Her po-altion has always been that she would one day rovise her quota bass and at the same time revise her tariff rale. That's the rub. There will be no need for quotas when her currency is adjusted, but there will be need for tariffs and she will revise her rates promptly in accordance with the best protective traditions. The result, therefore, will be just about the same in the end, as far as our foreign trade with France is concerned.

There will be one marked difference American tourist travel will be resumed. It was very low during the period of distorted currency relations. The devalued rency relations, the uc-franc will enable American tour fats to get almost one-third more for their money. It means Ameri-can women also will buy more French gowns, perfume and lux-

This, however, does not mean reestablishment of world trade or anything approximating it. Deficiencies but a large profit to Mr. Ford out of a small margin on an increased output of cars is a menace.

To carry out his theory he has had two subservent congresses to enact laws providing both for general states and the existing fortunes upon the death of the owners and for high taxes on incomes to prevent the existing fortunes upon the death of the owners and for high taxes on incomes to prevent existence of the existing fortunes upon the death of earnings. Mr. Roosevelt has spent all of the money realized from these taxes on income and principal for current purposes. He has done more. He has spent two dollars for every dollar the treasury has been able to collect uncerthe guise of preventing people from getting rich, sharing the wealth, and in other ways.

What is next? There are suffine past accumulations which has remained intact, either as university endowments or as foundations in the name of Carnegle, Saga Hockefeller, Harkness, Guggerheim and others. The total of these two types of funds runs considerably above two billion dollars who few exceptions there are to intuin the companies of the service of the servic endowments. Is there any reson to doubt that the most conspicuous apendithrift of all times, who appropriated the gold backing for wickness, and orphans' savings, which held only as a trust, will allow these funds to go untouched'. The temptation is too great.

The annual income of the toudations and endowments is over one hundred million dollars. This approximately the same as the combined incomes of those in the two top groups, those with incomes. endownients. Is there any reston combined incomes of those in the two top groups, those with incomes above a million a year and from 500 thousand to a million a year. These two incomes groups paid a tax of over 62 million dollars of their incomes in 1934, the last year for which figures are available. Presumably as much could be taken away from the university endowments and foundations by a government with a will to lar them. If the income of these funds is

It the income or these funds is not hearily taxed the principal will be wiped out in any continuation of Mr. Roosevelt's inflationary policies. Inflation, as we are experiencing it here, differs from the perleacing it here, differs from the more familiar European variety is appearance only. The essence of inflation is that a substantial amount of government spendirg beyond income is paid for by mere fist. Here bonds are printed by government printing presses and turned over to the banks, which give the government credit for deposits which are thereupon repentations of the interest rate on these issues in The interest rate on these issues is frequently less than 1 per cent. la Germany, the government with deficits like ours, they didn't bother about the banks and the fractional about the banks and the fractoral interest rate, but lesued paper which circulated as money. The difference between Germany and the United States is at most the presence of a middleman and a fraction of 1 per cent interest.

The consequence of inflationary finencing to German and aways to the property of the consequence of the consequ financing to German endowments and foundations may be understood from a few examples. In July, 1913, the Rothschild-Goldschmidt endowthe Rothschild-Goldschmidt endoment of one million marks was stup for the University of Frankfoit. By 1923, because of inflation, the fund had been reduced in value of 187 gold marks and the current of 187 gold marks and the current Kalser Wilhelm society for the seventeement of science, which booted of an endowment of 22 million ed of an endowment of 22 million ed of an encowment of 22 united gold marks prior to infialing, had earning funds amounting to 360 thousand marks after infiation. As old people's home, which took in those who paid in advance for their home in the second of the control of the con keep in their declining years, so fered an almost complete loss of its funds

Endowments are of ancient of-gin. Plate endowed his academy for the use of his successors and the Ptolemica did as much for their library at Alexandria. Colleges, hos-pitals, orphanages, and even roads were maintained in the middle ages were maintained in the mindre are by endowments. The Holy Chost hospital at Frankfort, founded in 1208 as a charity, survived in years under an endowment which uitlately amounted to 10 million marks, but become a fee hours! when inflation reduced the endow-when inflation reduced the endowment to the vanishing point.

If Mr. Rooseveit continues in office after Jan. 20 American foundations and endowments will have the problem of survival from either inflation or taxation. Mr. Rooseveit will make a drive on the universities and foundations, not only because they have funds which he wants but for another reason. He believes in the totalization is attempted in the totalization of the state. The foundations write are the government's under Mr. Roosevelt's conception of the state. These tax free enterprises are com-Roosevelt's conception of the Size.
These tax free enterprises are competitors of the government, as Mr Roosevelt sees them. That the would be permitted to function independently and tax free in a see and Roosevelt term beggars the imagnation.

Agreement.

. As further proof of the fact that social security legislation is not and cannot become an issue of the presidential compaign is the wide agreement on Gov Landou's criticism of the new legislation framed and passed by the Roosevelt administration.

Particularly is there a meeting of minds on the charge that the proposed $17,000,-000,000 reserve fund for payment of old age pensions is unnecessary and unsound. Gov. Landon has performed a public service in opening discussion of this vital subject.

His comparison with the head of a fam-Hy taking his children's savings and giving them IOUs, while spending the money, is bound to be quoted in future arguments The federal government's securities may continue to be high grade investments, but the bard fact is that they represent expenditures, not savings. The money theoretically collected and stored away for payment of old aga ponsions would be no more or less than an invitation to boost the spending rate of the government.

This is not a partisan issue unless the new deal chooses to make it so. It is by nature a public problem, something which will have to be settled sooner or later Gov. Landon who advocates putting old age penelons on an annual pay-as-you-go basis, has contributed materially to thought on the matter.

They Prefer Autocracy.

Americans following devaluation of the franc are told the move is assential to preserving democracy in France and strengthening, thereby, the weakened foundations of world peace

This point of view calls for a wider grasp or French domestic affairs and international problems than most men possess. It is an inviting attitude, neverthologs.

Economic distress translates itself readily into social instability and political unrest. It Is understandable that an over-valued currency, making debts difficult to bear and restricting trade, contributes to economic distress. Dictatorship in Germany, for instance, might have been blocked by relieving economic tension in that country.

It is, therefore, justifiable that, the United Sintes, Great Britain and France are in a loose agreement, not only to save the franc from causing further distress among Fronch debtors and tradesmen but to save French men if possible, from dictatorship

There is something more impelling in the idea of autocracy, however, than the economic distress which invites autocrats to seize power and challenges them to retain it. Tyranny springs from something deeper than disorder and desperation.

There are men and women who prefer autocracy-and not all of them are living under automats. They claim their eysten is more than a match for democracy, with its characteristic of popular decisions, upder any circumstances. It may be assumed none of these persons is looking forward to the time when they will cause to live under autocrais. Rather, they eagerly await the day when they will be able to take advanings of the promises the dicta tors haven't been able to keep because cca nomic conditions weren't favorable

Now it is not accurate to say that the above blog of 168 electoral votes in states where blg Democratic machines exist are in the bag for the new deal. If Mr Roosevelt wins these states it

If Mr Roomwell winn these states it will be to no small extent because the machines have succeeded in regimenting enough voters on behalf of the ticket to swing the electoral vote Many of these beases are by no means in personal sympathy with the new doul, but the Roomell policies have furnished them with spiradid opportunities for the exacts of these local results of the same of the sam local political influence as, for instance, through WPA and relief and through public works projects in which they or their friends have purificinated.

of the Kansas City-bt. Louis macoint or the Kansas City-ht. Louis macnine: "Missouri's Pendergast is in the tradition of the nineteenin century boses: A former saison keeper, he looks like a picture of the marters of old Tammany, short, thick, in his late 50's, with fierce hitte eyes. prostitution, and slot machines existing at the sufferance of the political organization. A close friend of Faries, Pendurgaal la loyal to the administration although privately he revites the new deal."

Pendergast has his allies in St. Louis. Of Mr. Roosevelt's Missouri majority of 400,000 in 1922, these two cities furnished about 200,000 and, with Republicana going back into the fold in various parts of the state and a general impression that Missouri will be carried by Mr. Roosevelt by about 150,000 majority, it is easy to see how much of a ditermining factor the Pendergast machine and its affiliated organization in St. Louis become in achieving a victory for the rew dosl.

Forced Into Action

Lately some big registration fraults have been uncovered in St. Louis and the scandal was so shocking that the Democratic governor had to dismiss the election board even though it was of Democratic creation. Writer Asks About Future of Endowment Funds.

The editorial which fellows is quoted from the Chicago Daily Tribune, where it appeared under the caption. "Endowments is Bounveit's Second Term."

Mr. Rosseveit's theory is that aggregations of wealth are ininquitous except when the riches are hestowed as subsidies upon administration favorites. A million or so to a big sugar planter who relies iess came is in the public interest but a large profit to Mr. Ford out of a small margin on an increased output of care is a menace.

To carry out his theory he has had two subservent congresses to cancel laws providing both for greenment seizure of a large part of Mr. Roosevelt's theory is the aggregations of wealth are enact laws providing both for gir-eroment selsure of a large part of the existing fortunes upon the death of the owners and for high taxes on incomes to prevent her fortunes from being accumulated out of earnings. Mr. Roosevelt ha, spent all of the money realized from these taxes on income and principal for current purposes. He has done more. He has spent two has done more. He has spent two dollars for every dollar toe treas-ury has been able to collect under

What is next." There are still the past accumulations which have remained intact, either as university endowments or as foundations, in the name of Carnegie. Sage, Rockefeller, Harkness, Guggen helm and others. The total of these two types of funds runs considerably above two billion dollars whose few exceptions there are no fettlements to compare in also with these endowments. Is there are no fettlements with the dollars when the doubt that the most conspicuous spendthrift of all times, who appropriated the gold backing for wishows and orphans, savings, weich which are suppressed. priated the gold backing for ows' and orphans' savings, a ows' and orphans' savings, were he held only as a trust, will allow these funds to go untouched. The temptation is too great.

The annual income of the foundations and endowments is over one hundred million dollars. This is approximately the same as the combined incomes of those in the two too groups, those with incomes above a million a year and from above a million a year and from above a million a year and from 500 thousand to a million a jerr These two income groups paid a These two income groups paid a tax of over 62 million dollars on the tax of the comes in 1834, the last year free incomes in 1834, the last jear for which figures are available Presumably as much could be taken away from the university endowments and foundations by a government with a will to tar them.
If the income of these funds is not heatily taxed the principal will be wiped out in any continuation of Mr. Roosevelt's inflationary policies Inflation, as we are ex-periencing it here, differs from the more familiar European variety in appearance only. The essence of infiation is that a substantial amount of government spredig beyond income is paid for by mere fiat. Here bonds are printed by government printing presses and turned over to the banks, when give the government credit fideposits which are thoreupon spead Tho interest rate on these issues is frequently less than 1 per cent. In appearance only. The essence of frequently less than 1 per cent la Germany, the government with deficits like ours, they didn't bother about the banks and the fractional about the banks and the fractional interest rate, but issued paper which circulated as money. The difference between Germany and the United States is at most the presence of a middleman and a fraction of 1 per cent interest.

The consequence of inflationary financiary to German endowment financing to German endowments and foundations may be understood from a few examples. In July, 1913, the Rothschild-Goldschmidt endowthe Rothschild-Goldschmidt endow-ment of one million marks was set up for the University of Frankfort. By 1923, because of inflation, the fund had been reduced in value of 187 gold marks and the current valuation is 1.32 marks. The Kainer Wilhelm society for the advancement of science, which books ed of an endowment of 22 million gold marks prior to inflation, had carning funds amounting to 360 thousand marks after inflation An old people's home, which took in those who paid in advance for their fored an almost complete loss of its funds Endowments are of ancient origin. Plate endowed his academy for the use of his successors and the Piolemics did as much for their the Ptolemies did as much for their library at Alaxandria. Colleges, her pitals, orphanages, and even reads were maintained in the middle ages by endowments. The Holy Chart bospital at Frankfort, founded in 1208 as a charity, survived 70 years under an endowment which ultimitely amounted to 10 million marks, bue became a fee hospital when inflation reduced the endowment to the wantabiling point.

If Mr. Rooseveit continues it office after Jan. 20 Americas foundations and endowments all have the problem of survival from either inflation or taxation. Mr. Rooseveit will make a drive on the universities and foundations oil only because they have funds which he wants but for another reason. He believed in the totalitarian state. The foundations for quently perform functions which are the government's under the Rooseveit's conception of the state. These tax free enterprises are com-Rosevelt's conception of the safe are competitors of the government, as M Rosevelt eees them. That they would be permitted to function is dependently and tax free in a see ond Rosevelt term beggars in imagination.

The heads of a number of universities and foundations fully understand the danger which confronts them, but some of their employees are not equally well advised University professors, as head trusters for Mr. Roosevelt, took a prominent part in the last presidential campaign. "The White Cottage, near Hatfield, Suesex," replied Ruth without hesitation. "But you won't find her there today, I'm atraid. She told me she was going away."

She did not mention that Anne sac aid that she was going to Berlin; she hoped that Anne, with her well-known carelearness, had not told anybody where she was going. Heaven only knew what would happen if Anne were to be questioned severely by the police. questioned severely by the police. She would probably throw tubes of

She would probably throw tunes or paint at them and end up in prison herself. She was like that. "Thank you," said Inspector Kennedy. "I don't think I need de-tain you or Mr. Mabony any

So that's his name, thought Ruth. And she wondered what sort of a Christian name he had. Somea Christian name he had, Some-thing really Irish, like Shawn or Padraig, she hoped. "I'm terribly sorry about your uncle, Elsa," she sald, "You will let me know if I can do anything won't you?"

"Yes. Thank you, Ruth," replied Elso, and then to Mahony: "I owe you an apology, Mr. Mahony. I'm sorry if I've suspected you unjustly." She spoks a little stiffly, se !! she had made the apology with great relictance.

"That's all right, Miss Little," said Mahony. "Please don't think about it any more."

He and Ruth Fraser left the house. When they had gone there was a chort silence. Then Inspector Kennedy ders slightly. Kennedy shrugged his shoul-

"It seems that you were mistaken, Miss Little, in thinking that Mahony was the man in the study with you and your uncle last night," he observed.

Yes," eald Elsa, in a She looked at the Inspector, her blue eyes full of an acute bewilder-

"I....I still don't think I was mistaken," she said falteringly, I've got a very good memory for volces. And why did Ruth say that mistaken." she was staying with Anne Dow-

"Have you any reason to think that she was not staying with Miss Dowson?" asked the Inspector keeniy. "Well....yes. The day after "Well...yes. The day after Ruth disspecared I had a letter from Anne about a picture I wanted to buy from her. In her letter she asked after Ruth. I don't think that even Anne would have done that if Ruth had been staying with her, though she is very absent-minded."

Lawson's first action after leaving the Little's house was to ring up Lee-Ramsden. He found Lea-Ramsden in a somewhat irritable meod.

"I've rung you up twice this morning already," said Lee-Ramaden.
"I want to know what happened last night. How did my ward manage to turn up here suddenly like that at four in the morning?"

"I don't know," answered Lawson. "I'm ringing you up to try to fird out what happened. I didn't know she'd got away till I saw her

"I needn't detain you longer," said Kennedy.

"I know who he is all right," an-swered Lawson. "He's an interfer-ing devil named Mahony, who is beginning to know a damned sight beginning to know a dammed eight too much about my affairs. You'd better glip out of the house and meet me quielly somewhere before that detective arrives. There are a lot of things I want to tell you before you meet him."

Lee-Ramaden spends some time, tomorrow, trying to dis-tract Kennedy with red herrings.
